Lisa Mansour Promoted to Associate Executive Director of Breckenridge Village

November 24, 2010, Willoughby, Ohio – Lisa Mansour has been promoted to the position of Associate Executive Director of Breckenridge Village retirement community, in Willoughby. The new position is a reflection of the size, scope, complexity and growth of service on the Breckenridge Village campus and the role Lisa has played in this development.

In her new role, Lisa will focus on the operations of the entire Breckenridge Village campus, especially resident care services that include: aiding and supporting the residents, families, staff and providers, such as Senior Independence, in assisting the independent living population with their needs and effective use of Breckenridge Village's continuum of services.

In making the announcement, Daniel J. O'Connor, President of OPRS (Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services) Communities added, "Over the next two years, Lisa will facilitate the project management of the Fairmount Health Center and Nason Center additions, serving as the interface with the residents, contractors, architects and the project development group of OPRS. Lisa will maintain her current responsibilities as the licensed administrator of the Fairmount Health Center, Nason Center Assisted Living and the growth created through current expansion in both of those areas."

“We are grateful for Lisa’s commitment and hard work on behalf of Breckenridge Village and OPRS”, O’Connor said.

Breckenridge Village retirement community is one of 11 retirement communities owned and operated by OPRS Communities, a wholly owned subsidiary of Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services (OPRS), headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. Since 1922, OPRS has defined the highest standards of quality of life for older adults. Each year, OPRS serves more than 80,000 people in 38 counties annually through its wholly owned subsidiaries OPRS Communities and Senior Independence.
