McGlaughlin Selected as Fellow in National Aging-Services Leadership Program

The American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (AAHSA) has selected Carrie McGlaughlin, Information Systems Director at Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services (OPRS), for its Leadership AAHSA Fellowship program. Of the 32 individuals selected nationally, McGlaughlin was among four Ohioans chosen. The Leadership AAHSA program is designed to augment the ranks of emerging leaders across the continuum of care and services for the aging and address the shortage of potential leaders nationwide. The Leadership AAHSA class will convene this fall.

Formerly of Hilliard, McGlaughlin and her husband Gerry are Plain City residents. The McGlaughlins have three sons: Tyler, Jacob and Andrew.

OPRS is the largest and most experienced not-for-profit provider of continuing care retirement communities and services in Ohio. A faith-based organization with headquarters in Columbus, OPRS serves more than 80,000 people in 38 Ohio counties annually through its 11 retirement communities and Senior Independence home and community based services.
