

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Kay Howard, (614) 888-7800

Slutz Named Corporate Director of Human Resources for Senior Independence;
To serve as Labor Relations Liaison for OPRS

Columbus, Ohio – Scott Slutz has been promoted to a corporate human resources management position for Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services (OPRS). He has been named Corporate Director of Human Resources for Senior Independence, a wholly owned subsidiary of OPRS and as the Corporate Labor Relations Liaison for OPRS. Prior to accepting his new responsibilities, Slutz served as Regional Human Resources Director for Park Vista of Youngstown; Rockynol in Akron; and Lake Vista of Cortland; all OPRS continuing care retirement communities. In his new role, Slutz will support Senior Independence in achieving organizational growth, corporate objectives and quality enhancement.

Slutz received his Bachelor of Science in Industrial Management, Human Resources and Masters of Science in Human Resources Management from the University of Akron. Additionally, he received his Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) Human Resource Certification and is a Certified Labor Relations Professional. He and his wife Alice live in North Canton with their daughter Rachel. With headquarters in Columbus, OPRS is the largest and most experienced not-for-profit provider of continuing care communities and services in Ohio. Its wholly owned subsidiary OPRS Communities serves more than 4,500 residents and operates 11 retirement communities statewide. Its other wholly owned subsidiary, Senior Independence, serves more than 75,000 people in 38 Ohio counties, operates 13 adult day centers and manages six senior centers in partnership with local governments. Senior Independence is one of Ohio's premier providers of home and community based services recognized for quality, innovation and a positive work environment.

###

